Biography

R. Monteith Macoubrie received his BA in General Literature from Reed College in 1942, as well as his Master of Arts in Education in 1956. He was an English and Journalism teacher and counselor in the Portland Public Schools.

Scope and Contents

The R. Monteith Macoubrie Papers consist of Monteith Macoubrie's college course notes and papers from Albany College, later Lewis and Clark College, to 1938, including some issues of the school newspaper. Also present are notes and papers from his Reed College courses, ending in 1942. Additionally, there are notes and graphs from his training in the U.S. Army, specifically Air-Navigation Training Materials from 1942-1943. There are also miscellaneous documents and publications included that relate to World War Two, such as the 1941 United States Army Song Book.
