Biography

John Clarence Pock, a native of Chicago, was born March 22, 1926. He served in the U.S. Army as a combat infantryman and sergeant in the Philippine Islands during World War II. He returned to Chicago after the war and studied at three universities in the area, earning degrees from each: University of Chicago, Roosevelt University, and the University of Illinois. He and his wife, Helen Bond Pock, arrived at Reed in 1955.

He taught Sociology at Reed College from 1955-1998; he died on February 18, 2012 in Portland, Oregon.

Scope and Contents

The John Pock Papers consist of correspondence with faculty colleagues as well as former students. The subjects range from sociology to politics as well as Reed College faculty governance. There are published papers and studies by John Pock, along with his hand-written notes and class lectures.
