

WATSON PAPERS

SALLY LOU WATSON PAPERS

- Provenance: The Sally Lou Watson Papers were a gift of Sally Lou Watson.
- Ownership: Reed College owns the Sally Lou Watson Papers.
- Access: Please contact the Special Collections Librarian for access to the Papers.
- Size: The Sally Lou Watson Papers consist of two manuscript boxes, or 1 linear foot.
- Processed by: Mark Kuestner
- Date: June 25, 2009

Biography

Sally Lou Watson was a member of the Reed College class of 1950, with a degree in General Literature. She came to Reed as a junior. Watson is an author with more than a dozen titles to her credit, many of them young adult works. She is also an artist.

Scope and Contents

The Sally Lou Watson Papers consist of diaries, sketchbooks and writings by Sally Watson. Many of the drawings and diaries cover the historical period of World War Two.

Box Index

BOX 1

- 1:1 Garfield High School: Hats off to Thee
- 1:2 Writings: poems and pictures
- 1:3 Sketches and drawings (Reed College Classes, Junior Qualls; Student Life)
- 1:4 Writings: "Heroes of Bet Haverim"; (A serial in four parts); 1948
- 1:5 Writings: "The Haunted Schoolhouse"

BOX 2

- 2:1 Scribble Books: Trip to St. Louis, 1940;
Scribble Books (Diary): Dec. 7, 1941 through summer, 1942 (Seattle, WA)
- 2:2 Scribble Books and Diaries: 1939-1945; 1956-2004
Diaries: 1942-1978
Scribble Books: drawings, 1944-1945.
- 2:3 Diaries: 1970-1972
- 2:4 Diaries: 1973
- 2:5 Diaries: 1974-1975
- 2:6 Diaries: 1976-1983