

Please use this form if you do not have a PDF of your thesis. Fill out the following information - required fields, including terms of access and copyright statements, must be included. Email the form to archives@reed.edu or drop it off to Special Collections and Archives. We'll scan your thesis and add it to the digital archive.

PROVIDE THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR THESIS:

1. Your name/author name (required):
2. Thesis advisor's name (required):
3. Your/author's major (required):
4. Thesis title (required, exactly as it appears on the thesis title page):
5. Abstract (optional):
6. Keywords (optional):

Enter any relevant keywords (words or phrases), separated by semicolons. Subject keywords can help people get better results when browsing for theses about specific topics. Please note, keywords may be edited to conform with library standards.

PLEASE CHOOSE THE TERMS OF ACCESS (REQUIRED)

Please select one of the following options. Access to all theses is currently restricted to the Reed community. In the future, those students and alumni who have chosen the public option will have their theses made available without restriction (searchable in Google, etc.).

A) Restrict access to the Reed community only

B) Make available without restriction to the public (if/when Reed Electronic theses become a public collection)

CHECK OR INITIAL ALL COPYRIGHT STATEMENTS BELOW (REQUIRED)

Your copyright: I hold the copyright to this thesis. I grant Reed College the non-exclusive right to archive this thesis and to make it available according to the terms of access indicated above. I retain all other rights to the copyright of this thesis.

Others' copyrights: I certify that all copyrighted material included in my thesis but not created by me has been properly attributed and: -is a fair use of copyright material or, -is part of the public domain and not protected by copyright law or, -is used with the permission of the copyright owner

Your permission: I have the authority and am granting permission to digitize this theses and add it to the online archive.