Fred Rosenbaum '50, former Chairman of the Housing Authority of Portland
- April 21: George A. Hay, Executive Vice President and Acting President of Reed College

Note to subscribers: If you do not plan to attend, please call 48 hours in advance to notify Florence Lehman, alumni director, 771-1112, ext. 240. The Alumni Association must pay for uneaten breakfasts.

The hearty breakfasts will get you off to a good start for the whole day: omelettes, sausage, and doughnuts, for example, or Belgian waffles, ham, and muffins. One morning we'll have that old standby, scrambled eggs, bacon, and sweet rolls, and another, French toast, sausage links, and doughnuts. With a meal of cheese omelettes, ham, and muffins, or of blueberry pancakes, bacon, and sweet rolls, who could go away hungry? And there's more — hash browns, orange juice, fresh fruit, and plenty of hot coffee and tea each Tuesday.

Sessions begin with breakfast at 7 a.m. in the Reed College Commons, Rooms A, B, C, concluding by 8:30 a.m., on first and third Tuesdays of February, March, and April. Subscriptions are limited, and paid reservations must be made by January 26th. Price is $50 per person, of which $20 is a tax-deductible gift to the College.

Please return the reservation form with your check payable to Reed College, to the Alumni Office, Reed College, Portland, OR 97202, by January 26.
